Report of the Treasurer

Presbytery treasurer RE Rob Boehmler reported on the financial reports included in the supplemental packet on the Presbytery's website, and included in the Appendix as Attachment E. Giving special thanks to Kenneth Rich for his good work preparing the financial information, he expressed gratitude to congregations of the Presbytery for their support of the presbytery's budget and ministry.

Boehmler noted that the total year-to-date revenues as of September 30, 2018, were $429,960 and total expenses $544,177. He also noted that projections for the rest of the year reflect lower expenses than those originally budgeted at $781,529. Reports from the Texas Presbyterian Foundation indicated that third quarter returns on investments with them were at 2.8%, with the nine month, year-to-date returns on investments for 2018 at 5.3%.

Again thanking the presbytery for their support, he expressed his hope that fourth quarter receipts toward the budget will again come in generously.

Report of the General Presbyter

General Presbyter MWS Stewart Smith addressed the Presbytery, beginning by welcoming being able to dress casually while meeting at Ferncliff! He extended a special welcome to MWS member of the Presbytery of Arkansas, MWS Joy Carrington, now living in Wilmington, Delaware, where she serves as a chaplain. He also welcomed the Rev. Michael Erwin, former member of presbytery now serving with the Church Campaign Service. And General Presbyter Smith updated those assembled on improvements underway on the Presbytery's website and email system.

General Presbyter Smith also spoke of things he was observing as he moved around the presbytery, visiting with and serving congregations. He explained that more and more congregations are reaching the "tipping point" where they are no longer able to pay a full-time minister. He also noted that this is not unique to Presbyterians, but is occurring across Christendom. He challenged the Presbytery to embrace the changes that are coming, noting that a group has been appointed to work on next steps to achieve the priorities of the Presbytery, aided by a volunteer consultant, asking how to live into this different landscape that the 21st century represents. Also, Smith called the Presbytery's attention to the report to be presented on Saturday recommending a new Presbytery staff design, pointing out that the report presents short descriptions of the recommended positions, not fleshed out job descriptions.

Noting that he is approaching his third anniversary in his position, Smith observed that his understanding of the life of the Presbytery is very different from that which he had when he was the pastor of a local congregation. A challenge he sees is that the Presbytery's current organizational structure, with appreciation for those who created it to serve those past eras -- relies on volunteers -- pastors, educators and ruling elders already busy in their own lives -- to do the work of the organization. They find it hard to keep up with the actions and decisions that need to be taken and approved. He noted the large number of committees and task forces Presbytery has and the number of persons required to fill all those positions. Since 2005, he observed, the Presbytery of Arkansas has moved from 95 congregations to 79 congregations, with 6,000 fewer active members on church rolls. Smith emphasized his belief that the Presbytery will need to make changes, structurally, in order to address the changes happening in society. In order to meet those changes and challenges, he said, all will need to give permission to be more nimble, more flexible. Working with each other, helping each other, he challenged, will make the changes necessary to faithfully continue to make the Body of Christ visible within and beyond the boundaries of the presbytery.

Introduction of Guests

Moderator Roper then welcomed Board of Pensions Regional Representative MWS Kevin Keaton who addressed the presbytery concerning recent changes to the plan of the Board of Pensions for ministers and church professionals. He also spoke of a new program of the Board of Pensions called "Pathways to Renewal" that brings young ministers into the Benefits Plan with the full benefits of Pastor's Participation at substantially reduced dues. It is designed to provide the hope of renewed leadership to small congregations, and nourishment to innovative ministries.

Moderator Roper then introduced Synod of the Sun Executive Director RE Valerie Young who brought greetings from the Synod and its presbyteries. Mrs. Young noted with appreciation Emily Laurel's work with the Synod's scholarship program and celebrated that MWS Elizabeth Gabbard, of the Presbytery of Arkansas, is soon to be installed as Moderator of the Synod.

Moderator Roper then welcomed MWS Rose Niles from Austin Presbyterian Theological Seminary. MWS Niles brought greetings from the Seminary and its president, the Rev. Dr. Ted Wardlaw, noting that there are now five international students at the seminary. She also highlighted service to the PC(USA) reflected in the work of professors such as the Rev. Dr. Cynthia Rigby, whose new volume, Holding Faith: A Practical Introduction to Christian Doctrine, was published this last spring by Abingdon Press.

Report of the Temporary Stated Clerk

Temporary Stated Clerk MWS Leslie Belden called the presbytery's attention to the fact that First Presbyterian Church of Berryville, now closed, continues to live on through donations made by that congregation to the Arkansas Community Foundation, grants from which continue in Berryville various ministries initiated by the congregation prior to its closure. Loaves and Fishes Food Bank of the Ozarks and Project Self Esteem of Carroll County each received a check for $1,162.80. Temporary Stated Clerk Belden then called attention to her report in the Main Packet, asking presbyters to read the updates on the seven existing Administrative Commissions, including:

Cane Hill/Walnut Grove Administrative Commission – MWS Phil Butin, Moderator

The Walnut Grove property was sold for $45,000 on July 15, 2017. The presbytery received $19,787 at the closing of the sale and received another $25,000 before July 14, 2018. The Presbytery approved the sale of the Cane Hill Presbyterian Church building to the Historic Cane Hill Society at the June 2, 2018 meeting, so that the building could be restored and the church continue meeting there.

First, Clarksville Administrative Commission – RE Ted Belden and MWS Clare Kelley, Co-Moderators

The AC is charged with working with the session of First Presbyterian Church, Clarksville, with the primary responsibility of selling the property, as that congregation meets at the University of the Ozarks' chapel. Belden reported that the Presbytery of Arkansas' minutes of 2017 meetings, indexed, with a list of former moderators and PJC members, and all five sections of the Presbytery of Arkansas' Ministry Manual were sent to the Synod of the Sun for review, together with their review sheet with page numbers of where items required by the Book of Order may be found. She informed the body that the Presbytery of Arkansas will be cited with at least two exceptions: (1) insurance was not reviewed in the year 2017; and (2) no financial review was reported for 2016 because 2015 and 2016 were not reported until June of 2018. The Synod has communicated that their review of records will be complete by the first week in November of this year.

Temporary Stated Clerk Belden shared that the records of dissolved congregations, and congregations which no longer exist for which the Presbytery has found records, were sent to the Presbyterian Historical Society in Philadelphia. A list of those records is found in the Appendix as Attachment F.

Belden announced that, in accordance with Book of Order D-10.0103, the Office of the Stated Clerk must report to the Presbytery of Arkansas that an offense has been alleged and an Investigating Committee appointed.

Report of the Coordinating Team

Coordinating Team Moderator RE Ruth Hamilton gave the report, moving the following:

Motion that the Presbytery of Arkansas dismiss the Woodlands Presbyterian Church of Hot Springs Village, Arkansas, from the PC(USA) in order to be received by the Evangelical Presbyterian Church, subject to the receipt of $30,000 within ten days of the vote of the Presbytery of Arkansas, and that the Temporary Stated Clerk be authorized to sign such documents and take such action as necessary to effectuate the dismissal and conclude the litigation between the Presbytery of Arkansas and Woodlands Presbyterian Church.

The motion was approved.

General Presbyter Stewart Smith then offered a prayer on behalf of the Woodlands Presbyterian Church and the Presbytery of Arkansas, as both move from the past into the future. Coordinating Team Moderator Hamilton expressed on behalf of her home congregation, the Kirk in the Pines of Hot Springs Village, their best wishes to neighboring Woodlands Presbyterian Church.

RE Hamilton then moved that the following be elected to serve on the Committee on Nominations:

Class of 2021:

MWS Marion Humphrey, at-large, Allison Memorial Church, Little Rock
MWS Cindy Saul, Region 1 Representative
MWS Patty Schaller, at-large Representative

MWS John Arnold, at-large Representative and that MWS Bob Hadley, HR, be approved to continue to serve as the Moderator of the Committee on Nominations, Class of 2019.

Moderator Roper called for nominations from the floor. There being none, the motion was approved.

RE Hamilton then moved that the Presbytery of Arkansas ratify the following people elected by the Coordinating Team:

Administration Ministry Area, Class of 2019: MWS Steve Hancock, Second Presbyterian Church, Little Rock

Permanent Judicial Commission, Class of 2023: MWS Mark Clark

Moderator Roper called for nominations from the floor. There being none, the motion was approved.

It was then moved that “Ministry to the Most Vulnerable in our Society” be the Presbytery of Arkansas’ Unified Mission Emphasis for 2019-2021; and that the Presbytery’s 25% of the 2018 Peace & Global Witness Offering be designated to “Hub of Hope,” a northwest Arkansas-based program that works with victims of human-trafficking, human-slavery and immigration issues. The motion was approved.

Coordinating Team Moderator Hamilton shared the following information with the Presbytery:

A leadership team of the Coordinating Team made up of CT Moderator Ruth Hamilton, Presbytery Moderator Leslie Roper, and Presbytery Vice Moderator David Stricklin, staffed by General Presbyter Stewart Smith and Temporary Stated Clerk Leslie Belden, will move forward according to the parameters of the Coordinating Team’s discussion to achieve measurable results toward the approved priorities of the presbytery, working with RE Tom Verdery of the Administration Ministry Area, to gather the leaders as prescribed. The plan was that that leadership team would chose representatives from each ministry area, plus one each from the COM and CPM, and announce this “next step” to the Presbytery at the October 19-20, 2018, meeting, with the hope of reporting back at the March 1-2, 2019 meeting of the Presbytery of Arkansas.

This plan resulted in a “Group of 12,” with incoming Vice Moderator of the Presbytery, Marion Humphrey, making up the twelfth member of the group. Coordinating Team Moderator Hamilton listed the members of the “Group of 12,” including:

- RE Julie Gillaspay, Administration Ministry Area
- MWS Kade Curry, Committee on Preparation for Ministry

Bruce Reyes-Chow will lead the Theological Discussion at the March 1-2, 2019 meeting of the presbytery at the University of the Ozarks, as well as lead a pre-presbytery workshop.

The Coordinating Team had referred to the Administration Ministry Area a motion from the Administrative Commission working with First Presbyterian Church, Clarksville, requesting, “that the Presbytery use church development funds to loan First Presbyterian Church of Clarksville up to $7,500 per year for expenses for the unoccupied building of First Presbyterian Church, Clarksville, with the loan to be paid back from proceeds from the sale of the building when that occurs.”

The Coordinating Team gave First Presbyterian Church, Dardanelle, permission to list for sale a piece of property that was deeded to them by a former, now deceased, member.

The Coordinating Team gave Westminster Presbyterian Church, Little Rock, permission to sell their current property on which their church building had burned in July 2018.

The Coordinating Team officially appointed the elected commissioners and the young adult advisory delegate to the General Assembly in June of 2018 to serve as the Presbytery of Arkansas’ Polity Committee, their term to last until the PC(USA) General Assembly meets in 2020. Those members are:

Re-Convene with Worship

Prior to convening the morning session, an 8:30 am morning prayer service at the cross by the Ferncliff lake, adjacent to the Brown Center, was led by MWS Anne Russ with music provided by MWS Bill Seitz.

Opening with prayer and again leading the presbytery in singing "This Little Light of Mine," Moderator Roper reconvened the meeting on Saturday morning, October 20, 2018, at 9:00 am in the Dining Hall. She welcomed everyone and announced that the offering from last evening's worship service benefiting Solar under the Sun totaled $1,047.

Those assembled then joined in a morning worship service, in which RE David Clark was commissioned as the Commissioned Ruling Elder for First Presbyterian Church, Heber Springs, and RE Ronnie Prevost commissioned as a Commissioned Ruling Elder to serve as Parish Associate at the Presbyterian Church of Bella Vista. Prayers were led by RE Beth Highsmith, David's mother, and MWS Dennis Ritchie, pastor of the Presbyterian Church of Bella Vista. MWS Bill Seitz accompanied the hymn on the guitar.

Temporary Stated Clerk Leslie Belden reminded the body of the proper ways of making motions, speaking to those motions, etc.

Report of the Administration Ministry Area

Moderator Roper invited RE Jan Enke, Moderator of the Administration Ministry Area, to give their report.

Enke thanked the ministry areas, committees, subcommittees, commissions, and their moderators and members, for their 2019 budget requests and reported that, based on requests submitted, the 2019 asking budget is $14,000+ over projected income. She noted that the primary increase is a proposed additional $20,000 in funding for the Youth, Young Adult, and Campus Ministry Area, budgeted to work on meeting the goals of one of the three priorities of the Presbytery.

She also noted that the General Assembly's per capita was raised for 2019, resulting in a $4,500 increase in that line item in the Presbytery's budget. In light of this increase, Enke urged Sessions to make their active rolls more accurate, so that the Presbytery will not pay the per capita for persons who are no longer active in the church.

Enke reiterated the three priorities of the Presbytery, affirmed at the June 2, 2018 meeting:

- Building strong congregations that faithfully and effectively share the gospel through mission and ministry;
- Connecting congregations, resources and expertise to support life giving practices in congregations and fellowships;
- Developing and supporting ministries with youth and young adults including collegiate and campus ministry.

Enke explained that after discussion, which considered the interest income/spend rate of investments with the Texas Presbyterian Foundation and the existing surplus, the Administration Ministry Area approved designating $14,300.00 of the surplus from 2017 to be used to balance the proposed budget for 2019. The draft of the 2019 Proposed Budget is included in the Appendix as Attachment H.

The Administration Ministry Area's report reflected that General Presbyterian Stewart Smith and Temporary Stated Clerk Leslie Belden were reviewed in their roles as elected presbytery staff, as annually required by the Synod, through conference calls with Catherine Allsbury and Jan Eke. Tom Verdery and Steve Hancock have been asked to develop a long-term plan for in-depth and cursory reviews.

Break

Moderator Leslie Roper then recessed the meeting for a short break.

Re-Convene

The Moderator reconvened the meeting at 10:30 am for the Order of the Day's theological discussion.

Theological Discussion on "Politics and the Pulpit"

Moderator Roper introduced RE Peg Falls-Corbitt, who then led those assembled through a thoughtful and prayerful discussion on the theology of "Politics and the Pulpit." The exercise, which RE Falls-Corbitt broadened to be titled, "Politics and the Church," creatively led the Presbytery through the complexities of a proposed amendment to the Book of Order to be voted on at the March 1-2, 2019, meeting to forbid congregations, ministers, sessions, presbyteries or synods to endorse candidates for political office.

Report of the Future of the Church Ministry Area

Moderator Roper called on RE Peg Falls-Corbitt, who gave the report of the Future of the Church Ministry Area in the absence of Moderator RE Ted Belden. Information in the report included reporting that $28,500 had been awarded to eight churches, out of ten requests which totaled $44,100. Those receiving grants included:

First Presbyterian Church of Batesville	$2,500
First Presbyterian Church of Jacksonville	$5,000
Vaughn Presbyterian Church, Bentonville	$3,000
Barr Memorial Presbyterian Church, Norman	$5,000
First Presbyterian Church of Van Buren	$1,000
Mt. Comfort Presbyterian Church, Fayetteville	$3,000
University of the Ozarks, Clarksville	$5,000
The Presbyterian Church of Bella Vista	$4,000
	$28,500

These churches will submit reports in January and the Future of the Church Ministry Area will share the details of their work at the March 1-2, 2019, Presbytery meeting.

RE Falls Corbitt also reported that educational sessions focusing on the book Growing Young by Kara Powell, Jake Mulder, and Brad Griffin were led at the two P.L.A.C.E. events in the spring and summer. The Future of the Church Ministry Area will be exploring ways to help the Presbytery of Arkansas use the tools described in the book, and recommend that congregations wanting to embrace an exciting future use the book as a resource.

Congregations interested in being part of a Presbytery Social Media Ministry Team were invited to contact Ted Belden at tedbelden@aol.com. In addition, congregations were encouraged to contact Tom Riggs, the Synod of the Sun's resource person on social media for assistance as needed. His contact info is thomas.riggs@synodsun.org or 214-390-1894.

Presbytery Reconvenes

Moderator Roper called the meeting back to order and asked Vice-Moderator RE David Stricklin to assume the duties of moderating the meeting while she gave the report of the Presbytery's Task Force on Staff Structure.

Report of the Presbytery's Task Force on Staff Structure

Task Force Moderator MWS Leslie Roper invited fellow Task Force member RE Julie Adkisson of First Presbyterian Church, Conway, to join her along with General Presbyter Stewart Smith, the staff liaison. MWS Kelly Pearson, an additional member of the Task Force, was unable to be at the meeting due to illness. Roper thanked MWS David Dyer, HR, originally a member of the Task Force who resigned this summer, for his good work with the group. She then explained the history of the Task Force, and called attention to the report of the Task Force included in the packet, which is included in the Appendix as Attachment O.

MWS Roper explained the Task Force's understanding of their task was not to evaluate the current staffing plan or those holding those positions, but rather to discern the staffing pattern that would best enable the presbytery, within the resources available, to fulfill its role in the years ahead. Those were the Task Force's hopes and prayers for the future, she emphasized. There is no perfect plan, she underlined, reminding that the Presbytery of Arkansas is really all of us -- congregations, Ruling Elders, and Ministers of the Word and Sacrament – not just the staff.

The Task Force's plan recommended a full-time General Presbyter and five part-time positions: Part-Time Stated Clerk, Part-Time Presbytery Administrator, Part-Time Presbytery Builder, Part-Time Presbytery Connector, Part-Time Presbytery Developer of Ministries to, for, and with Young People.

Questions about the plan were asked and answered by members of the Task Force.

A motion was then made by RE Jim Gilbreath of First Presbyterian Church, Springdale, and seconded, that the recommendations of the Task Force on Staff Structure be approved. Discussion of the motion ensued. The motion was approved.

MWS Maggie Alsup moved that the current Stated Clerk Search Committee be dissolved and that the Coordinating Team be tasked with the responsibility of appointing a Search Committee with the responsibility of recommending persons to serve in each of the positions in the new staffing structure, as well as that of the position of Stated Clerk.

The motion was seconded, and discussion of the motion ensued. The motion was approved.

Call to Fill Out Evaluation Forms

Thanking Vice-Moderator Stricklin for his leadership, MWS Roper returned to her role as Presbytery Moderator, passing to allow tellers to distribute evaluation forms to the body and asking those attending the meeting to please fill out a form before the end of the meeting. Forms were collected and a basket placed in a prominent place pointed out for those who completed the form as the meeting was ending.

MWS Blake Bruegar moved that the Task Force on Staff Structure be dissolved, with appreciation. The motion was seconded and approved.

Report of the Youth, Young Adult, and Campus Ministry Area

Moderator Roper called the attention of the body to the report of the Youth, Young Adult, and Campus Ministry Area included in the main packet, stating that they had no additional verbal report.

Report of the Committee on Preparation for Ministry

Moderator MWS Jeff Price began his report underlining the responsibility of presbytery to keep in touch with individuals who are in the process of candidacy, offering support and encouragement, and also encouraging congregations whose membership includes persons in the process of candidacy to stay in touch with those individuals offering support and encouragement.

Moderator MWS Jeff Price invited Inquirer LaWanda Harris to join him at the front of the room, and moved, on behalf of the Committee on Preparation for Ministry, that LaWanda Harris be examined for candidacy by the Presbytery of Arkansas. Motion approved. Her Statement of Faith is in the Appendix labeled Attachment P.

RE Harris then answered questions from the floor pertaining to her Statement of Faith.

Moderator Price then moved that RE Harris be moved from the status of Inquirer to that of Candidate for the Ministry. The motion was seconded. RE Harris left the room. The motion was approved unanimously. RE Harris was then brought back into the meeting with a standing ovation.

RE Harris' pastor, MWS Ruskin Falls of Pulaski Heights Presbyterian Church, was invited to come and assist with a service recognizing RE Harris as a Candidate for the Ministry of the Presbyterian Church (USA). Members of the Pulaski Heights congregation present in support of RE Harris were recognized.

Moderator Roper then led the service commissioning RE Harris as a Candidate for the Ministry, assisted by MWS Falls who led the presbytery in prayer for RE Harris' ministry.

Attachment C

RE David Clark Statement of Faith

I am a child of the church. I was baptized as a baby and was nurtured in the teachings and discipline of a loving church environment. I never knew life as a small child except as on loved and desired by God as expressed to me through the love of my parents, my grandparents and the members of the congregations of the churches my father served.

I am a Presbyterian by birth, by upbringing, by experience and conviction. While many are concerned about the numerical decline of the church, I am not. My father told me that Presbyterians have always been much smaller in numbers than all the other members of God's family but with an influence disproportionately large in comparison. I believe this to be so because of several reasons, all deeply connected to our faith. First, as Presbyterians, our faith demands that we know what we believe and in whom we have our faith. Ours is not a simple mystical experience from outside ourselves but is that commitment of which Paul speaks when he calls for a living sacrifice through the renewing of our minds. Second, as Presbyterians, our allegiance to Jesus Christ demands that in our call to ministry we understand we are called to minister to all of mankind. Jesus calls us to feed the hungry body as well as save the lost soul. We are called to heal the sick in body as well as bring healing to the soul. Such a ministry demands that we reach out to those less fortunate than ourselves and to care for a kind of humanity that many of us would prefer to cast away and pretend do not exist. Third, I believe that Presbyterians are called to be the conscious of the state and society. Often our message is not always a popular one, even with our fellow Presbyterians.

I believe in the Lordship of Jesus Christ over my life and over his church. I believe the Holy Spirit continually leads us ultimately to the will of God. Because we are a church that is 'reformed, always reforming," it is more often through a recognition of our excesses and our shortcomings that we are led to perceive a need for the reformation of the church. I pray that my faith will always keep me aware of my own need for reformation and open to the changes that reformation may bring to the church that I love.

My path to becoming a Commissioned Ruling Elder seems obvious in hindsight. After being ordained as a Ruling Elder in Batesville I was called on to fill the pulpit occasionally. That led me to fill the pulpit at Greers Ferry two Sundays a month for the last eleven years. I began to experience a stronger and stronger sense that I should be doing more. My life and education at this point have prepared me to serve a congregation more fully than simply filling the pulpit. I believe that is what I am called to do.

Attachment D – RE Ronnie Prevost Statement of Faith

My faith is in an ineffable God Who has chosen to reveal the Divine Self to humankind in terms that we can have at least some understanding and comprehension of God. God is triune, revealed in and through Scripture as Father, Son and Holy Spirit. All three persons are eternally God and all three have been and are active in all God's work from creation through redemption and sanctification and, ultimately, glorification. All these are acts of grace and out of God's love and care for all creation.

Though beyond human understandings of gender, the first person of the triune God has been revealed and described in Scripture both in terms of Father (as is traditionally understood) as well as with feminine imagery.

God the Son became incarnate in Jesus the Christ. Jesus, fully human and fully God (one of the greatest mysteries), lived and died sinless that sinful humanity might be redeemed. His resurrection on the third day vindicated Him and gives blessed hope to all His followers. Jesus' sacrifice and atonement is the greatest expression of God's love and God's grace without which humanity is doomed. Jesus' life, sacrifice and teaching serve as patterns by which those who call Him "Lord" are both called and commanded to live. However, this does not mean that humans can earn salvation, redemption, etc. through works -- even if total obedience were possible. Rather, that is the work of God through grace beyond our comprehension.

God the Holy Spirit has been active throughout eternity and specifically mentioned as the agent of creation. Throughout history the Holy Spirit has called and empowered people to do God's work -- despite sinful human nature which impacts all people are and all they do. Through grace the Holy Spirit inspired flawed creatures to write and preserve Scripture. Through grace the Holy Spirit calls people to salvation. Through grace -- and due to Jesus' atoning death -- the Holy Spirit cleanses and redeems sinful people. Through grace the Holy Spirit calls people to join in God's work on earth and entrusts them with gifts to accomplish that work. Through grace the Holy Spirit sheds light on Scripture -- written in vastly different cultures of long ago -- and guides our interpretation of it and, with God's help, guides and empowers our lives and service in our world and culture(s) today.

The church is the body of Jesus the Christ and the covenant community through which God works and serves throughout the world. The church exists both as local congregations and as the church universal. The sacraments of and in the church are baptism and communion. They are the "signs and seals" and reminders of Jesus' presence and work. They are symbols of what God has done and promises to do. They call God's covenant people to join in God's work. They reflect our collective and individual spiritual union with God and promote unity within the community of faith. Specifically, baptism is the sign and seal of one's inclusion in both God's grace and the covenant community -- the church. Communion is the table of Jesus the Christ and at which He is spiritually present. Therefore, we invite to Communion all who profess Jesus as Lord. Communion connects Christians of all ages in that we all partake of God's grace. It is a call to unity and genuine communion with each other as -- with God's help -- we bear witness in our daily lives "to the saving death of our risen Lord until He comes."

GATHERING IN GOD'S NAME

Prelude

Call to Worship

Barbara Gillaspy

Leader: What shall we render to the Lord for all the Lord's bounty to us?

People: We will lift up the cup of salvation and call on the name of the Lord.

Leader: Taste and see that the Lord is good.

People: Happy are they who find refuge in God.

* Opening Hymn

From All That Dwell Below the Skies

Hymn 327

From all that dwell below the skies let the Creator's praise arise:
Alleluia! Alleluia!

Let the Redeemer's name be sung through every land,
in every tongue.

Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

In every land begin the song, to every land the strains belong:
Alleluia! Alleluia!

In cheerful sound and voices raise and fill the world with joyful praise.
Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

Eternal be thy mercies, Lord; eternal truth attends thy word:
Alleluia! Alleluia!

Thy praise shall sound from shore to shore,
till suns shall rise and set no more.

Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

* Invocation

Rev. Steven Kuntz

Invitation to Confession

LaWanda Harris

Prayer of Confession (First in Silence, then Unison)

Holy God, giver of peace, author of truth, we confess that we are divided and at odds with one another,
that a bad spirit has risen among us and set us against your Holy Spirit of peace and love.
Take from us the mistrust, party spirit, contention,
and all evil that now divides us.
Work in us a desire for reconciliation,
so that, putting aside personal grievances,
we may go about your business with a single mind, devoted to our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. Amen.

The Book of Common Worship (Louisville, KY, Westminster John Know Press, 1993, 812.)

Assurance of God's Pardon

LaWanda Harris

 Passing the Peace of Christ

Since God has forgiven us in Christ, let us forgive one another.
The Peace of Christ be with you all.
And also with you.

 Congregational Response (In Unison)

In the Lord I'll Be Ever Thankful

Hymn No. 654

In the Lord I'll be ever thankful; in the Lord I will rejoice!
Look to God; do not be afraid.
Lift up your voices, the Lord is near. Lift up your voices, the Lord is near.
(repeat)

Anthem

Wade in the Water
Kirk Choir and Friends

arr. Larry Shackley

Wade in the water, wade in the water, children, wade in the water, God's a-going to trouble the water.
Wade in the water, wade in the water. Come on, wade, wade in the water, wade in the water.
God's a-going to trouble the water.

SACRAMENT OF THE LORD'S SUPPER

Anthem

For the Bread Which You Have Broken
Kirk Choir and Friends

arr. Helvey

For the bread which you have broken, for the wine which you have poured, for the words which you have spoken, now we give you thanks, O Lord.

By this pledge that you do love us, by your gift of peace restored, by your call to heav'n above us, hallow all our lives, O Lord.

With our sainted ones in glory seated at the heav'nly board, may the church that's waiting for you keep love's tie unbroken, O Lord.

In your service, Lord, defend us, In our hearts keep watch and ward; in the world where you have sent us, let your kingdom come, O Lord.

Let your kingdom come, O Lord, O Lord.

Words of Institution

Communion of the People

Prayer after Communion

GOING IN GOD'S NAME

* Closing Hymn Today We All Are Called to Be Disciples Hymn No. 757

Today we all are called to be disciples of the Lord, to help to set the captive free, make plowshare out of sword, to feed the hungry, quench their thirst make love and peace our fast to serve the poor and homeless first, our ease and comfort last.

Pray justice may come rolling down as in a mighty stream, with righteousness in field and town to cleanse us and redeem.
For God is longing to restore an earth where conflicts cease,
a world that was created for a harmony of peace.

May we in service to our God act out the living word, and walk the road the saints have trod till all have seen and heard.
As stewards of the earth may we give thanks in one accord to God who calls us all to be disciples of the Lord.

Reception

Reception tonight, immediately following worship in the Glenn Meeting Room, adjacent to the dining hall. All are invited.

Offering Recipient

Solar under the Sun is an ecumenical mission of the Synod of the Sun, PCUSA. The vision of the Solar Under the Sun is to illumine our fellow human beings with hope and life through solar energy. To do this, SUS trains volunteers to design and install solar power systems with communities that lack reliable electrical power. Their solar power systems capably run water treatment systems and can also be used as a power source for communication, medical clinic refrigerators or x-ray equipment, or can help with lighting needs. Solar Schools (training sessions) are held at Ferncliff in the ECO Center.

Tonight we welcome Valerie Young-Synod Leader and Stated Clerk of Synod of the Sun.

Communion

Communion tonight will be served “family style” by intinction. There is a chalice and bread at each table. Those not seated at a table or who prefer gluten free bread are invited to a station led by worship leaders Rev. Lindy Vagado and Dr. Rev. Robert Williamson.

The Presbytery will re-convene Saturday morning at 9:00 a.m.

Attachment I – MWS Susan Arnold Statement of Faith

I believe in God the Creator; whom Jesus called Abba/Father, who is intense passion, honesty, truth, wisdom, justice, righteousness, grace, and unimaginable love. I believe in Jesus Christ, the unique son of the living God, who was human and is also divine. This God/man was squeezed into human flesh for a particular period in human history. He accomplished in death what is mystery to me; the forgiveness of human sin and the healing of human brokenness. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the breath and voice of God which sustains the church universal. The Spirit communicates with us constantly in unique and powerful ways; dreams, answered prayer, receiving praise, giving encouragement and direction, revealing call, and administering healing.

I believe we are to live in relationship with God. God desires our happiness but is more concerned about our holiness. 1 Peter 1:15-16 "like the Holy One who called you, be holy yourselves in all your behavior; because it is written, 'YOU SHALL BE HOLY, FOR I AM HOLY.'" We are to live in relationship with one another, the demonstration of that relationship being the church which is the mystical communion of saints spanning time, space and culture – "the great cloud of witnesses" of Heb. 12:1. Church happens when "two or three believers are gathered together" (Matt 18:20), and when believers "devote themselves to the apostle's teachings, to fellowship, to the breaking of bread and to prayer" (Acts 2:42). God works out the church's purpose through human institutions. The church's purpose is to continue Jesus' purpose; to seek and save the lost and make whole that which is broken.

I believe in the Word of God in three forms; the Word made flesh in Christ, the written Word of Scripture, and the Word preached. The Word made flesh does not overshadow the written Word, nor does the written Word overshadow the Word made flesh. There is no truth in one not found in the other, nor will one contradict the other. Jesus acknowledged and confirmed the authenticity and authority of Scripture and Scripture does the same for Jesus. Scripture is accurate and true in all things pertaining to the mystery of our faith. The Word preached must rise from the Word made flesh attested to in Scripture.

I believe in two sacraments, Baptism and Communion, both being "outward and visible signs of inward and spiritual grace." There is no efficacy for salvation in either; however, they are means by which we show our intent to be faithful to God, and through which God mysteriously nourishes us. I believe human life is a preparation for eternal life. I have held too many hands and watched too many expressions as people leave this world not to believe that where we are going is more real than where we are. I believe Christ will come again in a way which defies our imaginations. Christ will then reign in power and humanity, and creation will be restored to its original design.

Attachment J – MWS John Arnold Statement of Faith

I believe in God who is triune in nature. I believe we see and experience God's triune nature in God's relationship with us in His son Jesus Christ, and in the power of the Holy Spirit.

God as the creator of all things seen and unseen is omnipotent and eternal. God's grace and desire for us to be in relationship with Him astounds me for it is undeserved. We are sinners separated from God by our sinful nature and unable of our own power to remove that separation. We deserve death, but God designed an amazing and miraculous plan to overcome that separation and give us life.

At the heart of this plan God became incarnate in Jesus Christ giving us a tangible connection point with God's love for us. Christ, fully divine and fully human, lived a sinless life. He died and rose from the dead three days later. In so doing he bore our sins and redeem us. As a result, we have life eternal and abundant. I believe Christ will come again and reign forever.

God sustains and empowers us in this new life we have in Jesus Christ through the gift of the Holy Spirit which is not a spirit of timidity, but of power, love, and self-control. This Spirit comforts and guides us. We are united by God's Spirit and given gifts for the common good.

I believe we cannot earn God's love. God's love and forgiveness has already been freely given. However, we can and should out of gratitude live holy lives for Scripture tells us that God has chosen us to be a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people for God's own possession, to proclaim the virtues of Him who called us out of darkness into God's marvelous light.

This responsibility of living a grateful life dedicated to God's glory is one we joyfully bear individually and collectively as Christ's body, the church.

Praise be to God for God's goodness.

So, while we cannot save ourselves through our own works, we can honor God for the work God has already done to forgive and claim us as children of God.

I believe in two sacraments, Baptism and the Lord's Supper. These were gifts given to us to remember, experience, and look forward to God's grace. These holy and mysterious gifts are tangible signs of an internal and spiritual grace. They nourish us for service to God.

I believe God inspired and preserved for us a written witness we call scripture, so that we may come to know His love for us in Jesus Christ. God's written word is also a unique and authoritative guide to help us understand God's nature and live faithful lives as disciples.

Attachment K – MWS Alicia Secrest Statement of Faith

I believe God spoke the world into existence and breathes life into every moment, loving us unconditionally and wanting our communion. Before the beginning of time, God knew each of us – our unique brand, our personality, our giftedness and our weaknesses – and knew our individual purpose in the world and in the Kingdom of Heaven. In our search for the truth revealed in Jesus Christ, God reveals divine character and truth to us. We encounter God in Scripture, history, reason, murmurings of the Spirit, and the community of faith. Through God’s self-revelations, we can grow in our knowledge of God, maturing according to the model of Jesus Christ. We cannot know all there is about God, but we can know truths about God, and knowing God helps us to know ourselves and our place in the world. Although God is infinitely greater than our imaginations, divine grace invites us into perfect love, perfect glory and the perfect kingdom of Heaven.

I believe in the virgin birth, death and resurrection of Jesus Christ, and that He lives within me, interceding with the Father on my behalf. Jesus Christ is my Lord and Savior. And I believe in the Holy Spirit which stirs me into worshipful moments of awe and praise and feeds my spirit through inspiration and blessing.

I love the church, the community of differently gifted believers drawn together by the Spirit in the worship and service of God. In our humble confession of sin before God, we continually encounter God’s redemptive and healing grace. And grateful to God’s love and favor for me, I claim the promise in Christ and the freedom offered through discipleship. I celebrate my baptism where I received a sign and seal of incorporation into Christ, and along with the saints baptized into the body across the world and throughout time, I am part of the body of Christ. And when I participate in the Lord’s Supper, I join with those saints around God’s table in remembrance of God’s gracious work through Christ and participate in a foretaste of the promise of heaven. I serve gratefully and joyfully in the church and its purposes, biased toward God’s continual reforms of the church.

Attachment L – MWS Matt Bussell Statement of Faith

I believe that the Triune God created the world out of nothing. The Father is primarily responsible for the act of creation but the Son and the Holy Spirit also participate. God did not create out of primordial matter or with another being but rather out of nothing. God has the ultimate authority and is the source and sustainer of all things.

Humanity is created in the image of God. We are created good and with freedom. God created us to be in relationship with others and God as a community of mutual love, justice, and peace. Sin tarnishes our ability to live as God created us. When we, individually and as a community, destroy relationships through behaviors such as greed, selfishness, oppression, prejudice, and self-devaluation, we alienate ourselves from each other and God.

In Jesus Christ the Eternal Word of God was incarnate, becoming human as the ultimate expression of divine love. Throughout his life and ministry, Jesus shared the vision of God's Kingdom for the world based on community and love. His teaching angered the religious and political elites who viewed him as a threat to the status quo. They conspired to execute him on the cross. Three days later he rose from the dead and later ascended to reign beside God the Father. Through his life, ministry, death, resurrection, and ascension, Christ reconciles humanity with God and one another. The ultimate experience of alienation in death is overcome in Christ as he paid the penalty for our alienation from God and foreshadows our resurrection to new life. We have hope for the future because of the resurrection of Christ. After death we will be united with God. This resurrection we anticipate is not the rising of our souls to heaven but a bodily resurrection.

It is through the Holy Spirit that we come to know Christ. The Spirit unites us to Christ, enabling us to receive Christ's benefits. Through the Spirit we are justified by grace, through faith. The Spirit works in us through grace in our sanctification.

The source of our knowledge of God and God's work of redemption in history is Scripture. Scripture is the Word of God inspired by God but written by people. Scripture has been written, edited, translated, and interpreted by people who are prone to error. It is therefore the Word of God insofar as it points to Christ. In Scripture we learn of God's character and actions; it is in Scripture that we know God's grace.

The church is the body of Christ on earth. Though there are many denominations, together they constitute the body of Christ. It is through the church that we participate in the community of believers and receive the sacraments. The sacraments are signs that point to God. Baptism is a sign of God's covenant with us while Communion is a sign of Christ's incarnation, death, and resurrection which unites us with God. Christians are not called to be solitary but in community, building each other up in love. We are also called to share God's mercy and love with the world.

Attachment O – Proposed Staff Structure by the Staff Structure Task Force

The proposed staffing structure for the Presbytery includes one (1) full-time position and five (5) part time positions, or parts of positions. The Task Force on Staff Structure felt it important to maintain a full time General Presbyter. With the other positions, the Task Force envisioned that there may be candidates who would feel called to serve a church part-time and supplement that work with a position with the Presbytery. Likewise, the Task Force could also envision an individual who was gifted and felt called to combine two of these positions into a full-time position for the Presbytery. These are the pieces that the Task Force felt need to be covered. How, exactly, these pieces fit together, we do not feel capable (or called) to determine.

Full-Time General Presbyter

The job description of the General Presbyter would not change substantially. The one addition we would suggest is language that, as a member of the Presbytery Staff, s/he would offer support to the Stated Clerk and other members of the Presbytery Staff as appropriate.

Part-Time Stated Clerk

The job description of the Stated Clerk would not change substantially. As with the General Presbyter, we suggest additional language that, as a member of the Presbytery Staff, s/he would offer support to the General Presbyter and other members of the Presbytery Staff as appropriate and as directed by the General Presbyter.

Part-Time Presbytery Administrator

This part-time position (or part of a position) would focus on the administrative requirements of the organization and the office. In particular, this position would include office hours each week when individuals could, with confidence, make direct contact with someone at the Presbytery Office. This position supports the work of the “Synod Tech Guy”. If that relationship were to change, additional staffing hours would be needed to coordinate the website and other online presences.

Duties include:

- Maintain Office Hours- Be available during posted weekly hours to answer the phone and the door, providing congregations and pastors in the Presbytery a way to reach a person at the Presbytery Office with confidence.
- Onsite financials and support of Texas Presbyterian Foundation
- Provide support for Presbytery office facilities.
- Provide administrative support (as needed) to the General Presbyter, Stated Clerk, and any other staff/volunteer as directed by the General Presbyter.

Part-Time Presbytery Builder

This part-time position (or part of a position) would focus on the priority “Building strong congregations that faithfully and effectively share the gospel through mission and ministry.” The person in this position would NOT be personally responsible for the health of each congregation in our Presbytery, but instead would be responsible for being both a conduit and a coordinator of the Presbytery’s mutual support for congregations and leaders.

Duties include:

- Be the first point of contact for congregations in the Presbytery that do not have an assigned COM liaison.
- With an eye on our smaller, resource-challenged congregations, provide hands-on support for congregations seeking pastoral leadership without the ability to call a full-time installed pastor. Within this role, explore and develop outside-the-box possibilities for shared leadership between congregations and within the Presbytery.
- Create a mechanism for mutual support between congregations in the Presbytery, including the possibility of shepherding relationships between congregations.
- Be an active and visible presence at Presbytery meetings, events, and in congregations, when possible.
- Offer support to the General Presbyter and other members of the Presbytery Staff as appropriate and as directed by the General Presbyter.

Part-Time Presbytery Connector

This part-time position (or part of a position) would focus on the priority “Connecting congregations, resources, and expertise to support life giving practices in congregations and fellowships.” This job would embody the connectional nature of our denomination, developing and encouraging connections and sharing resources between congregations, pastoral leaders, session clerks and other congregational volunteers, and the Presbytery Staff itself.

Duties include:

- Facilitate connections between the Presbytery Office and congregation, pastors, and members, including coordinating the content that is communicated via the Presbytery’s website, social media platforms, and the newsletter.
- Facilitate connections between congregations/fellowships of the Presbytery, including encouraging engagement with regional neighbors as well as churches with common ministries and missions.
- Organize orientation sessions for pastors and other church leadership as they join the Presbytery.

- Facilitate connections between pastors/congregational leaders in the Presbytery, nurturing both collegial and personal relationships through in-person gatherings and available technologies.
- Connect pastors and congregations to the resources available in the Presbytery. These resources include, but are not limited to, the human resources we have in the expertise of the members and staff of the Presbytery and physical resources, including those housed in the resource center. In addition to connecting to already available resources, explore and connect with new resources that might bring life to our congregations.
- Offer support to the General Presbyter and other members of the Presbytery Staff as appropriate and as directed by the General Presbyter.

Part-Time Presbytery Developer of Ministries to, for, and with Young People

This part-time position (or part of a position) would focus on the priority “Developing and supporting ministries with youth and young adults including collegiate and campus ministry.” This job would provide staff support for the current ministries aimed at younger Presbyterians in addition to visioning and promoting new ministries both within our Presbytery and our local congregations.

Duties include:

- Maintain current duties of “Youth Ministry Coordinator”.
- Serve as staff resource for the Ministries with Youth, Young Adults and Campus Ministry Area. Within the work of that ministry area, encourage innovative approaches and new ideas to foster engagement of young people (under the age of 35) within our congregations and ministries. Connect those who serve on that ministry team with resources available to the Presbytery.
- Thoughtfully and intentionally engage the congregations of this Presbytery as an advocate for ministries with young people. Make face-to-face visits to active youth ministries in the Presbytery, both sharing information about the opportunities offered by the Presbytery and listening to what youth groups are doing and what they need. As time allows, make connections with campus ministries within the state and congregations who actively support their college students/young adults.
- Keep a record of “best practices” seen in congregations in terms of connecting and ministering to/with young people, so that those may be shared with congregations who need a jump-start.
- Offer support to the General Presbyter and other members of the Presbytery Staff as appropriate and as directed by the General Presbyter.

Attachment P – Inquirer LaWanda Harris Statement of Faith

I believe in the triune Godhead of God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit; all are part of the one true God. I believe in God the Father who is creator and ruler of the earth. The Father is faithful and merciful to humankind. The Father's love for the world is so great, that he sent his son, Jesus Christ, to redeem it.

I believe in the savior, Jesus Christ, who was born of the Virgin Mary. As Jesus of Nazareth, God's son became incarnate by taking on a body like ours. Fully human, he was crucified on the cross for the salvation of all humans. Yet, he was also fully divine. Although he suffered death, Jesus Christ was resurrected in three days! No longer was humanity subject to death, but through the life, death, and resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ, we have hope for our own resurrection, too.

I believe in the Holy Spirit. Although the incarnate Jesus Christ is not here on earth, the Holy Spirit surrounds us. I believe in the divinity and goodness of the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit calls us into a deeper relationship with God. God is still with us on earth through the power and presence of the Holy Spirit.

I believe in God's grace. I believe God's grace is so mighty that humans cannot completely grasp the power of it. Grace is at the heart of salvation. Humanity was given the gift of being made in the image of God. Even though humanity was given the perfect example of holy living through Jesus Christ, humanity still has a sinful nature. By the grace of Jesus Christ, there is salvation. God's grace has no limits. Salvation is extended to all nations and all races.

I believe in worship of the triune God. Through worship, we recount the deeds of God and listen for the Word of God speaking into our own hearts. I believe in the holy scriptures, which give us authoritative testimonies of God's work. I believe in the sacraments of baptism and communion. Baptism is a sign of the grace bestowed on us, even before we are born into the world. Through baptism, we affirm our adoption as children of God. Communion is also a sign of the grace received through Jesus' love for humanity. Communion is an act of remembering the suffering, death, and resurrection of Jesus. It is also a remembrance of our salvation, which we can joyfully proclaim. Christ has come, and he will come again!

I believe God's heart is never full to capacity because God calls each of us to enter more fully into his heart. I believe in prayer, which communicates to God the desires of our heart. The Lord is so full of wonder and awe. The workings of the Lord are sometimes beyond the scope of our human minds. I believe we must have humility when speaking about God. I believe that God reigns for eternity and desires us to be with him forever. May we take heed of the goodness, love, grace, and splendor in the Lord.
